Arden L. Vaughan, 81, of 323 E. Southern Ave., Bucyrus, died at 9:32 a.m. Monday, Feb. 11, 2008, at Altercare of Bucyrus, following a recent illness.

He was born May 8, 1926, in Bucyrus, to Lamont M. and Violet (Gilliland) Vaughan. He married Marie Yost, and she survives.

Mr. Vaughan also is survived by three children, Mary Ann (Frank) Tinus of Solon, Kenneth (Marilyn) Vaughan of Solon and Joann (Daniel Stelzer) Hingsbergen of Sunbury; eight grandchildren, Amy (Todd), Christopher (Chaimica), Laura (Jon), Matthew (Casey), Ryan, Mark (Jessie), Sara and Kevin; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and in-laws.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by six brothers and three sisters.

For many years, Mr. Vaughan was the proprietor of Vaughan's Welding in Bucyrus. He lived his entire life in Bucyrus and graduated from Bucyrus High School in 1944. He was a member of Holy Trinity Catholic Church, an active member of American Legion Post 181 and the Knights of Columbus and was a World War II U. S. Navy veteran.

A Mass of Christian burial is to be celebrated 11 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 14, 2008, at Holy Trinity Catholic Church with the Rev. Ronald LeJeune as the celebrant. Burial is at Holy Trinity Catholic Cemetery.

Friends may call 2-4 p.m. and 6-8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 13, 2008, at Munz - Pirnstill Funeral Home, Bucyrus, where K of C services will be 7:45 p.m.

The family suggests memorials be made to the American Cancer Society, Holy Trinity or a charity of the donor's choice.
