

Obituary Notice: Port Clinton News Herald
Originally published Saturday, October 11, 2003

Elsie Jane Hoffman
July 26, 1918 -- Oct. 9, 2003

Elsie Jane Hoffman, 85, of Port Clinton died Thursday at Edgewood Manor Nursing Center in Port Clinton. She was born on July 26, 1918, in Fremont to William and Elsie (Deere) Krupp. In 1940 in Fremont, she married Donald Hoffman and he preceded her in death. Mrs. Hoffman worked for over 20 years for the News Herald as a teletype setter. She was a member of the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, Port Clinton and the Altar Rosary Society. Survivors include: son William (Judy) Hoffman of Parker, Colo.; daughters Jean (Fred) Pearce of Prescott, Ariz., and Martha (Tom) Hammack of Woodville; seven grandchildren; five great-grandsons; and sister Arlene (Donald) Bohling of Port Clinton. She was preceded in death by her parents, William and Elsie Krupp; husband, Donald Hoffman; sisters Geneveve Van Ness and Mary Fisher; brothers Richard, Kenneth and Walter Krupp; and son Donald Hoffman Jr. Visitation: 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday, Gerner-Wolf-Brossia-Marsh Funeral Home, Port Clinton. The Altar Rosary Society will conduct a rosary service at 6 p.m. Services: A Mass of Christian Burial will be conducted by Father Raymond Ensman at 10:30 a.m. Monday at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, Port Clinton, where the body will lie in state one hour prior to the service. Burial: Riverview Cemetery, Port Clinton. Memorials: Heartland Home Health Care & Hospice of Tiffin or Heartbeat of Ottawa County.