

John Guloski Rites Friday

Funeral services for John E. Guloski, 58, who died Tuesday in the Bellevue Hospital will be Friday, 9:30 a.m., in the Immaculate Conception Church. The Rev. Albert Bishop will officiate.

Mr. Guloski was born in Cleveland, O., on Nov. 19, 1905, the son of John and Ann Holday Guloski. He married Ann Frisch on Jan. 29, 1935 at Marywood.

He was a member of the Immaculate Conception Parish and had been employed as a machinist at the National Plastics and Chemical Corp., N. Buckeye St.

Mr. Guloski is survived by his wife Ann; two daughters, Mrs. Donald Kegerreis and Mrs. Paul Ruhlman, both of Bellevue; a son, John Jr., at home and three grandchildren.

His parents, a daughter and a sister preceded him in death. The family residence is at 170 Sinclair St.

Friends may call at the Foos Funeral Home today after 7 p.m. Burial will be in the Bellevue Catholic Cemetery.

The Rosary will be recited Thursday at 8 p.m., at the funeral home.
