

MRS. DORA KORB

Passed Away at Home of Her Daughter
Mrs. Isaac Sterner, This Morning.

After an illness extending over a period of four weeks, Mrs. Dora Korb died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Isaac Sterner, on Monroe street, at 12:30 this morning, aged 68 years, 6 months and 5 days. Death was due to Bright's disease, complicated with dropsy.

The deceased was born at Thompson Center and nearly her entire life was spent in Thompson and Sherman townships. For the past nine years she has made her home with her daughter in Bellevue.

Mrs. Korb leaves one daughter, Mrs. Sterner, and five grandchildren. She also leaves one brother and six sisters, as follows: Henry Korb, of west of Bellevue; Mrs. Katie Missig, Bandusky; Mrs. Elizabeth Missig, Mrs. Mary Daniels, Mrs. Charlotte Stockmaster, Mrs. Rosa Stockmaster, Havana; Mrs. Emma Link, North Fairfield.

Mrs. Korb was a devout christian woman and a life-long member of the Catholic church. She was a skillful nurse and her kindly ministrations have brought comfort and cheer to the bedside of many an invalid, and she will be greatly missed from her sphere of usefulness, and many hearts will be filled with sorrow now that she has passed from earth.

The funeral will take place from the Catholic church Monday morning at 9 o'clock, services being conducted by Rev. J. A. Michenfelder. Interment in the Catholic cemetery.
