Henry KORB
age 79y

FORMER RESIDENT DIES NEAR HAVANA

After an illness of about six months, Henry Korb, an aged former resident of Bellevue, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Wise, in the vicinity of Havana. He is survived by four daughters and one son, Mrs. John Wise and Mrs. Jacob Wise, both of the vicinity of Havana, Mrs. Frank Stockmaster, of Elyria, Mrs. Thos. Rearden, of Ft. Wayne, and Peter Korb, of near Havana.

Mr. Korb, who was aged 79 years, was a resident of this city until about nine years ago.

Funeral services were held this morning at St. Sebastian's Catholic church in Bismark and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery here, besides the remains of his wife, who died a number of years ago.
