

FIND MAN IN ROAD UNDER HIS WAGON

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS
AND FELL UNDER HORSES
HEELS INTO ROADWAY

With his head up near the heels of the horses attached to his wagon, Charles J. Krupp, well known farmer and resident of the Miriam district, was found Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Mays, of Smyrna, lying in the road near the top of what is known as the "Dickens" hill, south of this city on the Smyrna road. Mr. Krupp had fallen from his wagon and the team had, apparently stopped.

Mrs. Mays stopped and hailed others who were nearby and they got Mr. Krupp into a car and took him home, calling Dr. Penton, of Smyrna, who pronounced the man as suffering with and having been stricken with a severe attack of paralysis. His son, Dr. Christian Krupp, of Grand Rapids, was immediately notified and he came to the parents home with an ambulance and took the aged sufferer back to St. Mary hospital, where he was treated, but death came on Monday, without Mr. Krupp having regained consciousness.

The body was brought to his late home on Wednesday morning and the funeral services will be held this Thursday morning at nine o'clock, from St. Mary church at Miriam, where he had been a life long worshiper, with Rev. F. Lawrence L. Dorr officiating and with burial in the cemetery there.

Mr. Krupp was born on the farm where he has resided all his life and was 69 years of age at the time of his death. Surviving are the widow, two sons, Dr. Christian G. Krupp, of Grand Rapids and Frank Krupp, at home; three daughters, Mrs. Rufus Waldron, of Flint; Mrs. Eugene Birdsell, of Ionia and Miss Dorothy Krupp, at home. George Krupp, of Miriam, is a brother and Mrs. Anna Byrnes, of Parnell, Mrs. K. Mulholland, of Grand Rapids and Mrs. Frances Kemp, of Miriam, are sisters.
