Deceased Name: Ed Krupp Jr. formerly of Northbrook

Ed Krupp Jr. formerly of Northbrook A memorial gathering for Ed Krupp Jr., a longtime resident of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., will be from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 29, at Tonelli's in Northbrook. His resting place will be in the Sims Cemetery, Au Gres, Mich. "Our brother Ed, whom we loved," has made his transition on Saturday, June 3, 2006, in Chicago, after a long illness. He had just turned 56 on May 20, 2006. Ed was a talented person, as he played guitar, painted and piloted small planes. He worked with his brothers John and Frank in the concrete business and introduced the island of Eleuthera to many people. He loved the Beatles, Apollo space missions and reading the Bible. Ed was a real people person, making friends and telling jokes to the end. He left this Earth knowing he was loved and cared for by his family. His last weeks were spent under the very special care of Seasons Hospice in Crystal Lake. "Amidst our sadness, we are glad he is now happy, joyous and free. We will miss you Ed." Surviving Ed are his mother, Katherine Krupp; and siblings, Cathy Powers, Jenny Wiegand, Bill Krupp, John Krupp, Frank Krupp, Marta Krupp, Louisa Landers and Fred Krupp. He was preceded in death by Edwin Krupp Sr. and Robert Wiegand. Donations can be made in Ed's name to Seasons Hospice. Thank you for your love and prayers at this time.
