

<http://www.loraincounty.com/>

Gail S. Krupp-Kiss, 47, Enjoyed the Cleveland Browns, sewing, and puzzles

Gail S. Krupp-Kiss, 47, of Vermilion, died Monday, December 2, 2002 at New Life Hospice Center of St. Joseph, Lorain, following a lengthy illness.

Born May 27, 1955 in Elyria, she moved to Vermilion in 1978. She was a 1973 graduate of Firelands High School.

She worked as a machinist for M.A. Harrison, Birmingham, in the 1970's. She was a member of Henrietta United Church of Christ, a life member of the Veterans of Foreign War Post 7576 Ladies Auxiliary, Vermilion, and the Ladies Auxiliary, Vermilion. She was an avid Cleveland Browns fan, and enjoyed sewing and doing crossword puzzles.

Surviving is her mother, Susan Reynolds and step-father, Art Reynolds, of Dundee, Florida, father, Leon Tobias and step-mother, Ann Tobias, of Elyria, brother, Leon Krupp, of Vermilion, sisters, Cindy Krupp-Dryden, of Vermilion, Susan Krupp-Socha, of Henrietta Twp., Valli Krupp-King, of Vermilion and Joyce Corns, of Elyria, several step-brothers and step-sisters, several nieces and nephews, her companion, Al Casey, of Vermilion. She was preceded in death by her adopted father, Joseph Krupp, in 1971.

The family will receive friends on Thursday, December 5, 2002 from 11:00 a.m. until the time of memorial services at 12:00 p.m. at New Life Hospice Center of St. Joseph, 3700 Kolbe Road, Lorain. Private burial will follow in Elmwood Cemetery, Lorain. The arrangements are being handled by the Dovin Funeral Home, 2701 Elyria Ave., Lorain.