Is Wedded to Cambridge Young Lady.

Otto A. Krupp, of Cambridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Krupp, of this city, and a former resident, was united in marriage to Miss Anna Rose Costello, in St. Benedict's Catholic church, in Cambridge, at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. The church was beautifully decorated for the event and the impressive ring service was used. Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, who, together with the bridal couple and Mr. and Mrs. Krupp of this city, formed the receiving line at the breakfast.

The young couple will enjoy a two weeks' honeymoon trip up the lakes and upon their return will take up their residence with the bride's mother.
