
SENECA NATIVE'S RITES WEDNESDAY

BELLEVUE — Funeral will be in Immaculate Conception Catholic church, Bellevue, at 9:30 a. m.

Wednesday with burial in the parish cemetery for Fred J. Miller, 75, retired Nickel Plate railroad engineer, who died Sunday in Bellevue hospital.

He was a native of Seneca county and resided at 310 Louise avenue here.

Surviving are his wife, Lulu; stepsons, Lawrence and Duane Smith, both of Clyde; brothers, Joseph and Otto, Reed township, and two grandchildren.