Frank M. POLLEY

Frank M. POLLEY, 78, retired Pennsylvania Railroad man and farmer, died Monday [10 Dec 1945] of a heart attack in Yankeetown, Florida. Relatives were informed Tuesday.

Mr. Polley, who resided north of this city on Road 31, left a month ago with Mrs. Polley to spend the winter in the South. Death followed an illness of a week, it was learned here.

The deceased, a son of the late Henry and Elizabeth POLLEY, was born in Aubbeenaubbee township, this county, and was a resident of this county practically all of his life. He served as a track foreman for the Pennsylvania Railroad at Kewanna until retired. Following his retirement from active duty he moved to his farm north of Rochester, where he has since resided.

Surviving are his wife, the former Minnie SMITH; one son, Maynard POLLEY, Buchanan, Mich.; three daughters, Mrs. Lola DIXON, Mrs. Cleo VALENTINE and Mazell POLLEY, all of South Bend; nine grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; one brother, Lewis POLLEY, Rochester and one sister, Mrs. Charles MARCELLUS, Defiance, Ohio.

The body will arrive here from Florida Friday morning and will rest at the Foster funeral home until the funeral hour at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Services will be in charge of Rev. O. L. LEMERT, and burial will be in Leiters Ford cemetery.
