

The Bryan Times (web edition), 13 Aug 2005
Bryan, OH

Ruth Ann (Henry) Wolf
(1953-2005)

KISSIMMEE, Fla. - Ruth Ann Wolf, 51, of Kissimmee, died Wednesday, July 20, 2005, in Orlando.

Born July 22, 1953, at Bryan, Ohio, she graduated from Montpelier High School in 1971 and was employed at Robinair Manufacturing in Montpelier. She moved from Ohio to the Kissimmee area in 1983, and married Frank Wolf in 1988, and he survives.

A member of the Bible Baptist Church in Kissimmee, Fla., she was active in their music department. Surviving, in addition to her husband, are a daughter, Jennifer St. John of Kissimmee; a son, Joshua St. John of St. Cloud; a granddaughter, Riley Jeanne St. John; three stepdaughters, April Wolf of Ashville, N.C., Leah Wolf of Cape Coral and Amanda Williams of Orlando; two stepgrandchildren; and a brother, Dallas Henry of Norway, Maine.

A memorial service was held Saturday, July 23, at Bible Baptist Church, Kissimmee, followed by interment at Rose Hill Cemetery, Kissimmee.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, Breast Cancer Research, 419 Fifth St. STE 2030, Defiance, OH 43512, phone (888) 227-6446, fax (419) 782-4372, or to the Bible Baptist Church (Music Dept.), 1500 E. Vine St., Kissimmee, FL 34744.