

Advertiser--Tribune

SUNDAY, JUNE 2, 2002

Leonard W. Theiry

Leonard W. Theiry, 79, of 1341 S. SR 19, Republic, died Friday afternoon, May 31, 2002, at Mercy Hospital of Tiffin, after a sudden illness.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Lindsey-Olds Funeral Home, 3085 S. SR 19, Bloomville.

TUESDAY, JUNE 4, 2002

Leonard W. Theiry

Leonard W. Theiry, 79, of 1341 South SR 19 Republic, died Friday afternoon, May 31, 2002, in the emergency room at Mercy Hospital of Tiffin, after a sudden illness.

He was born Sept. 23, 1922, in Fostoria, to Jacob and Barbara E. (Eisley) Theiry.

He is survived by: longtime companion, Martha Soski of Republic; a daughter and son-in-law, Anthony and Rebecca Searcy of University Heights, Ohio; a son and daughter-in-law, Tymothy and Joan Theiry of Inverness, Fla.; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Luke (Sue) Kerns of Tiffin and Mrs. Sue Ashton of Rossford, Ohio; a stepson, Mark Soski of Bellevue; two grandchildren, Mrs. Raya Summers of Greensboro, N.C. and Rani Shields of Oakwood Village, Ohio; three great-grandchildren, Branden and Jordon Summers of Greensboro, N.C. and Nicholas Shields of Oakwood Village, Ohio; a brother, Gerald Theiry of Bradenton, Fla.; and a sister, Mrs. Helen Gray of Fostoria.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Frances Banks and a brother, Herman Theiry.

Mr. Theiry retired from National Machinery in 1985, where he was employed as a tool maker for 38 years. He was a W II Marine Corp. veteran, serving as a presidential guard for President Roosevelt. A member of the St. Aloysius Catholic Church in Republic, the St. Aloysius Knights of Columbus Council 11287, the National Machinery Quarter Century Club and a life member of the Tiffin VFW.

Visitation will be 7-9 p.m. Wednesday, June 5, at the Lindsey-Olds Funeral Home, 3085 S. SR 19 Bloomville. The Quarter Century Club will have a visitation at 7 p.m., and the St. Aloysius Knights of Columbus will have services and recite the Rosary at 8:45 p.m.

Memorial contributions may be made to the church.

A memorial mass will be announced at a later date.

SUNDAY, JUNE 30, 2002

Leonard W. Theiry

A Memorial Mass for Leonard W. Theyry, 79, of Republic, who died Friday, May 31, 2002, will be 10 a.m. Tuesday at the St. Aloysius Catholic Church in Republic, with the Rev. Joseph Szybka officiating.

Memorial contributions may be made to the church.

The Lindsey-Olds Funeral Home in Bloomville is handling the arrangements.