09/01/2002 Thomas J. O'Loughlin, of Toledo, died August 30, 2002, in The Toledo Hospital. Tom was born December 27, 1932, in Toledo and was a lifelong area resident. Tom owned and operated Suburban Builders and Oakridge Builders. He was a graduate of Blessed Sacrament Grade School, Central Catholic High School, attended University of Toledo, where he was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity, and graduated from Ohio State University. He was a veteran who served in the U.S. Army. Affectionately known as "the mayor of Madison Avenue", Tom managed the Spitzer Building in Downtown Toledo for many years. He was a wonderful husband, caring father and fun-loving brother who was loved by all who knew him. He married Ruth Ann Urban on November 28, 1975. Tom is survived by his wife; sons, Thomas "Joe" O'Loughlin and Edward "Ned" O'Loughlin; daughters, Paige O'Loughlin and Quinn O'Loughlin; brother, Terrence (Gretchen) O'Loughlin; sisters, Sally O'Loughlin and Sheila (Joseph) Jordan, and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, Edward and Hilda (Krupp) O'Loughlin, and a sister, Sharon Bourrillion. Visitation will be from 4-8 p.m. Monday in Walker Funeral Home, 5155 Sylvania Ave., and from 10-11 a.m. Tuesday in St. John The Baptist Catholic Church, Monroe, Michigan, where services will be held at 11 a.m. on Tuesday. Interment will be in Toledo Memorial Park at 1 p.m. Tuesday. Those wishing to make a memorial contribution in Tom's name are asked to consider the Salvation Army or St. Ursula Academy.
