

116
13 Obeys the Death Angel's Sudden Summons Sunday Evening. Bellevue News
SEPT 6-1901
p4 c4

14 ~~Mrs. Elizabeth Weidenger, of Monroe~~ street, succumbed to a sudden attack of 15 heart failure at 8:45 o'clock Sunday
16 evening, aged 72 years, 9 months and 25
17 days. The funeral services took place
18 from the Catholic church, Tuesday
19 morning, conducted by Rev. Father J.
20 A. Michenfelder. Interment in the Catholic cemetery.

21 ~~The deceased was born in Keipelburg,~~
Bavaria, November 6, 1828. Was married 22 to Peter Weindenger, who emigrated to 23 this country over fifty years ago. His 24 wife followed him in 1855, and the family
25 settled in Pennsylvania. Mr. Weidenger
26 died at Bismark, this state, seventeen
27 years ago. Three years ago Mrs. Weiden-28 ger moved to Bellevue, and since that 29 time has made her home with her son,
30 Peter.

31 Eight children of the union are living.
32 Mrs. Joseph Briehl, of Bellevue; Mrs.
33 Joseph Elminger, of Sherman township;
34 Mrs. John Kramer and John Weidenger,
35 of Reedtown; Peter Michael and Joseph 36 Weidenger and Mrs. Chas. Huff, of Belle-37 vue.

38 Mrs. Weidenger enjoyed the esteem of 39 all who knew her and among her kindred 40 her demise is indeed a heavy blow. To 41 her youngest son her death is a great
42 misfortune, he being almost blind, hav-
43 ing lost his sight through the careless 44 play of a fellow workman at Ohio Culti-45 vator works about two years ago. The 46 sympathy of the community goes out to 47 the bereaved ones in their sad hour of 48 affliction.