

April 2, 1986

BELLEVUE (OH) GAZETTE

Page 2

OBITUARIES

WILLIAM GOODWIN

William Roscoe Goodwin, 79, 408 Brinker St., died Wednesday, April 2, 1986, in Bellevue Hospital following a lengthy illness.

He was born on Dec. 23, 1906, in Fountain County, Ind., and was the son of Charles and Nancy (Luneford) Goodwin. He married the former Corene Schreiner on Jan. 1, 1954.

He retired in 1969 from the former Nickel Plate Railroad. He was a member of the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church and Eagles Aerie 490, Bellevue.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, Donald Goodwin and Dale Goodwin, both of Perrysville, Ind.; three daughters, Mrs. Valerie Riley and Mrs. Morris (Dixie) Dunham, both of Cayuga, Ind., and Mrs. Bud (Nancy) Cunningham, Covington, Ind.; numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren; one brother, Peter Goodwin, Cayuga, Ind.; and three sisters, Dessire Livengood, Tangier,

Ind., Helen Riggs, Cayuga, Ind., and Mildred Potter, Danville, Ind.

He was preceded in death by one son, Charles, and by his parents.

Friends will be received at the Fooks and Son Funeral Home from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Friday. Wake services will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the funeral home.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 10 a.m. in Immaculate Conception Catholic Church with the Rev. Robert Weithman officiating. Burial will follow in Bellevue Catholic Cemetery.