Helen Eisenhart

Helen Adeline (Schreiner) Eisenhart, 89, of Attica, passed away Tuesday, Jan. 16, 2007, at Hillside Acres in Willard after a short illness.

She was born Jan. 7, 1918, near Fireside, Thompson TR 27, Seneca County, to J.A. Schreiner and Meda Zechman Schreiner. On Jan. 7, 1942, she married George M. Eisenhart in St. Michael Catholic Church in Marywood.

She is survived by a daughter, DeeAnn (Byron) Kent of Attica; a son, Gary (Jaynie) Eisenhart of Attica; five grandchildren, Charles and Shari Ruffing of Clyde, Jolene and Derek Houpt of Bloomville and Shawna Eisenhart of Attica; and a sister, Edna Schreiner of Bellevue.

Preceding her in death were her parents; her husband, George; one sister and two brothers in infancy; a son-in-law, Michael J. Ruffing; and a daughter-in-law, Patricia Eisenhart.

A 1936 graduate of Thompson High School, she was a housewife and lived on a farm near Attica with her family. She was a member of the Sts. Peter and Paul Rosary Altar Society, the 1917 Club, Friends of the Library and Four County Young at Heart Senior Center in Bellevue.

She served as chairperson of the Reed Township Heart Fund, she was a former Attica Garden Club member, a founding member of the Reed Township Achievement Group and a layman member of the Chiropractor Association in the community. She enjoyed club meetings and playing cards.

Calling hours will be 3-8 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 18, 2007, at Lindsey-Foos-Kocher Funeral Home, 1295 W. Tiffin St., Attica, where a Christian wake service will be at 7:30 p.m.

A funeral Mass will be at 10 a.m. Friday, Jan. 19, 2007, at Our Lady of Hope Parish, 14204 E. CR 56, Attica, with the Rev. Joe Szybka and the Rev. Ted Miller concelebrating.

Burial will be at Sts. Peter and Paul Cemetery in Attica.

Memorials may be made for Masses, the Seneca East Public Library, Our Lady of Hope Building Fund or the donor's favorite charity.
