

Found Dead

Fostoria—John H. Krupp, 609 West Fremont street, was found dead Saturday emorning at the Flechtner Bros. slaughtering and meat packing plant on North County Line street. Death is said to have been due to heart attack. Mr. Krupp was a retired farmer but recently had been acting in the capacity of night watchman at the Flechtner plant. His body was discovered by employes when they entered the building this morning. His funeral will be held at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Wendelin's church.

Tiffin's Tribune P 5 C 4 Mond 31 Jan. 1927