

Brother of John Krupp Dies In California

Michael C. Krupp, 73, formerly of Tiffin, died at his home in Lodi, Cal., this morning, according to a message received by his brother, John Krupp, 71 1/2 East Market street.

Mr. Krupp was born near Bismark, Huron county, in 1855. After his marriage, he moved to North Dakota where he lived for 25 years. He later went to Lodi, Cal., where he entered the fruit growing business. He owned extensive almond, cherry and grape land there.

His widow, two daughters, Mrs. Anna Nelson of Oakland, Cal., and Mrs. Tillie Seigelhoff of Lodi, Cal., and a son, George, at home, survive him. His brother, John of this city, and a sister, Mrs. Martin Schreiner, living near Bismark, Huron county, also survives.

Arrangements for his funeral have not been made.
