roy, of Scranton, Pa., has made a routine appeal to the Supreme Court for a rehearing of the petition for review. Such petitions are rarely granted. Unless further appeals can be made to state courts, four years of legal maneuvers will end and the sentences will be carried out.

In Scranton, Conroy told The Advertiser-Tribune that Landside's conviction was a "bum rap" and that he had been a "patsy" for Evans and his nephew in the case.

NEW BORN SON BURIED TODAY

S/O CONNOR & AGNES

Graveside services were conducted in St. Mary's cemetery at 9:30 a. m. today for Paul Eugene Krupp, who was born in Mercy hospital Jan. 1, 1961 to Thomas and Janice (Bishop) Krupp, 31 Henry street. The infant died shortly after birth. The services were in charge of the Pahl-Nemeth funeral home.

Surviving, in addition to the parents, are a brother, Michael Thomas, and grandparents, Mrs. Agnes Krupp, Tiffin; and Mr. and Mrs. Clement Bishop, New Washington.
