

TIFFIN (OH) ADVERTISER - TRIBUNE MON / MAR 1982 PHA, CA

Rose M. Smith

Rose M. Smith, 89, of 426 N. Sandusky St., Bellevue, died early Sunday morning, Feb. 28, 1982, in Bellevue Hospital following a brief illness.

She was born in Reed Twp. on June 15, 1892, to George and Gertrude (Hahler) Schreiner, and was a member of Bellevue Immaculate Conception Church and its Altar Rosary Society.

She is survived by a son, Richard H. Smith of Attica; four daughters, Mrs. Eleanor Pifher, Mrs. Doris Provenzale both of Attica, Mrs. Vincent (Agnes) Bogner, Mrs. John (Patricia) Mahl, both of Bellevue; three sisters, Catherine Frisch of Bucyrus, Helen Keller of Attica, Mrs. Roscoe (Corene) Goodwin of Maryville, Tenn.; 12 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Harry P. Smith, in 1974, three brothers, four sisters and two grandchildren.

Friends may call from 7-9 p.m. and from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Tuesday at Foss & Son Funeral Home, Bellevue, where the rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Funeral mass will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday at Bellevue Immaculate Conception Church, with burial following in Reed Assumption Cemetery.