

If you are in trouble, go to Mme. Vantley. She gives advice on love, marriage, divorce, law, speculation and all affairs of life. If you desire to remove your domestic trouble and gain your lost affections call and she will guide you with a certainty higher than human power. This week only at Hotel Shawhan.

Sunday afternoon, John Schreiner died at his home near Reedtown, aged seventy years. He and his wife were making preparations for their golden wedding anniversary which would have been celebrated in a few weeks.

Rev. Vogelmann, of Reedtown, will officiate at the funeral which takes place Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

County Clerk Mann, this morning, received word that the motion of the defendants to quash the services of the process, in the case of the State of Ohio, ex rel. of George Gooding, Prosecuting Attorney of Wyandot county, vs. The International Harvester company, which was to have been street, died at her home 1 Ind., Monday. She was aged eighty years. Mr. Jackson died several months ago.

The Epworth League of Methodist Episcopal church monthly business meeting at the home of Mr. and M McDowell, Monday evening; fifty young people were present after the business session, evening was pleasantly spent with and games.

The funeral of Miss Euge occurred this morning at St. Catholic church at 8:30, Rev. Lon officiating. The service very impressive, high mass read. A very large number were present and the floral were many and beautiful. Mains were interred at cemetery.

The Right Name is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve soothes and heals cuts, bruises, piles and all skin diseases.

Tiffin Daily Tribune
4-18-1905
S13