

Joseph A. Schreiner

Joseph A. Schreiner, 88, route 3, Bellevue, died at 5:15 p.m. Friday, April 12, 1974, in Providence Hospital, Sandusky, where he had been a patient for a week.

The son of Michael and Helena (Shaub) Schreiner, he was born Nov. 21, 1885, in Thompson Twp. He married Meda Zeckman Aug. 20, 1916, and she has since died.

A retired farmer, Mr. Schreiner was a member of St. Michael's Church in Marywood and its Holy Name Society. He was also a 12-year member of its school board and a member of the Eagles lodge in Bellevue.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. George (Helen) Eisenhart of Attica, and Miss Edna Schreiner, at home; two grandchild. He was preceded in death by two sons and a daughter.

The body is in the Foos Funeral Home in Bellevue, where friends may call from 7-9 o'clock Sunday evening and from 2-4 and 7-9 o'clock Monday. The Rosary will be recited there at 8 p.m. Monday.

The Rev. Norbert Adelman will conduct services at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday in St. Michael's Church, Marywood. Burial will be in Bellevue Catholic Cemetery.

Firemen go to trash fire

Tiffin firefighters were called to a trash fire on North Washington Street at 6:09 p.m. Friday and warned the resident such burning was illegal.

A passing motorist reported something on fire in the neighborhood and the number two pumper and aerial truck was dispatched. On their arrival, firefighters found Donald A. Shoub, 201 N. Washington St. burning evergreen clippings

APRIL 13, 1974
ADVERTISER TRIBUNE