

GREEN SPRING NEWS.

The holiday season was full of enthusiasm in this place.

The G. A. R. Post and the M. E. Sunday school gave very fine entertainments with a liberal distribution of presents.

In one of the plays given by the G. A. R. Post, Mr. Harris received serious injuries by the accidental discharge of a charge of powder in his face. One of his eyes was badly injured.

One of our oldest citizens, James A. Watrons, died Dec. 23th, aged 82 years. He came to this place when there was but one house in the village.

M. Schreiner died Dec. 16th, aged 35 years. JAN 1, 1885 TIFAN TABUNE
