

OBITUARY

Donald J. Yost, 79, Fostoria, died peacefully with his loving family at his side at 11:45 pm, Tuesday, February 6, 2007 at the Good Shepherd Home, Fostoria where he resided.

Don was born January 12, 1928 in Fostoria to the late Henry and Regina (Hoffbauer) Yost. He married Betty Jane Bauman May 2, 1953 at St. Sebastian Catholic Church, Bismark, and she survives.

Also surviving are four sons, Rick (Vicky) Yost, Fostoria, Denny (Judy) Yost, Toledo, Gary Yost, Arcadia, and Dean (Linda) Yost, Lexington, KY; two daughters, Diane (Greg) Steinkerchner, Wadsworth and Julie (Todd) Nye, Fostoria; 19 grandchildren; 9 great grandchildren; two sisters, Marie (Arden) Vaughan, Bucyrus, and Coletta Smith, Arcadia; two brothers, Firmin (Mary) Yost, Fostoria, and Robert Yost, Mansfield.

He was preceded in death by three sisters, Dorothy Stewart, Louise Gase and Virginia Yost; and two brothers, Cyril and Larry Yost.

Visitation Times
Sunday 2-4 & 6-8 pm
Hoening Funeral Home

Don retired in 1989 from Atlas Crankshaft Corp., Fostoria after 40 years of service. He was a lifelong Wood County farmer, and drove school bus for Fostoria Community Schools. He also was involved in real estate sales for several years.

Leave a Free On-Line Condolence
View On-Line Condolences
Print This Obituary

Visitation will be held Sunday 2-4 and 6-8 pm at HOENING FUNERAL HOME, Fostoria where a Rosary will be prayed at 7:45 pm.

Mass of Christian Burial will be Monday 10:30 am at St. Wendelin Catholic Church, Fostoria, where a Rosary will be prayed at 10 am. Committal prayers will take place in the Veterans Memorial Chapel of Fountain Cemetery, and burial will follow in St. Wendelin Cemetery.

Memorials are suggested to St. Wendelin Church or Fostoria Right to Life.

Online expressions of sympathy may be made by visiting www.hoeningfuneralhome.com